

MASSEY UNIVERSITY COUNCIL ELECTIONS (PROFESSIONAL STAFF MEMBER) STATUTE 2019

Pursuant to section 171 of Education Act 1989

1. Title and Commencement

This Statute may be cited as the Council Elections (Professional Staff Member) Statute 2019 and comes into force on the day after it is passed and this Statute repeals the Massey University Council Elections (Professional Staff Member) Statute 2015.

2. Application

This Statute applies to Professional (general) staff of the University.

3. Purpose

The purpose of this Statute is to govern the election to the Massey University Council by members of the permanent Professional staff of one member who is a permanent Professional staff member.

4. Statute

For the purposes of electing one member of the University Council being a permanent member of the professional (general) staff of Massey University pursuant to the constitution of the Council approved by the Minister of Tertiary Education under the provisions of s 170 of the Education Act 1989:

- Each elector will be eligible to nominate a candidate and vote; and
 - Each elector will be eligible to be nominated as a candidate
5. The date of the election will be determined by the Returning Officer and reported to Council.
6. The election shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of the Electronic Election Statute 2016 except where a specific requirement of this statute applies.
7. The nomination of Candidates for election under this Statute must:
- a. Be in the form approved by the Returning Officer; and
 - b. Be signed by not less than two voters as the nominators; and
 - c. Carry the written consent of the nominee and a declaration of eligibility; and
 - d. Contain a declaration by the nominee to abide by the statutes of the University and the Massey University Election Rules for Candidates (Schedule 1).

8. Each person elected in accordance with the provisions of this statute will hold office for a term of four years unless he or she resigns, retires from office, or ceases to be a permanent member of the professional (general) staff of the University, when the position will become a casual vacancy.
